

RECRUITMENT AD

20th JULY 2007

The ad's set in a scrap yard. There's rottweilers. Three of them. They're angry. They've got me pinned up against a chain-link fence. The shot is taken from high up behind me, so you can only see my feet. The headline is 'Alan needs help' (as in Alan needs a talented Art Director). Connect logo bottom right hand corner, www.connect-group.com and email CV and samples to julie@connect-group.com.
